

HERITAGE AND CULTURE OF CHHATTISGARH

Madhurima Rawat

Datascience(B.Tech CSE)

Dharohar Club UTD CSVTVU

ABOUT CHHATTISGARH

Chhattisgarh is one of the ancient states of India.

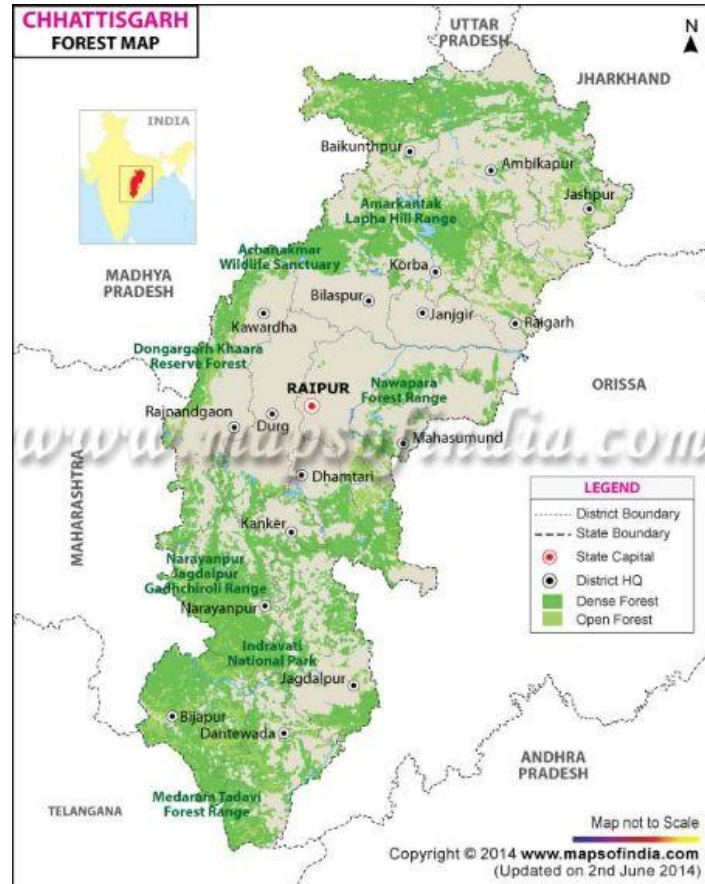

Chhattisgarh borders associated the states of Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, and Telangana.

The Chhattisgarhi culture is immersed in varieties of dance forms, mainly due to the number of tribes residing in the vast expanse of the state.

The state's tribal population has developed many native indigenous folk performances of their cultural beliefs.

Most of the Chhattisgarh folk dance forms are performed as part of rituals, performed in reverence for the gods or denoting the change of seasons.

Special costumes and accessories are made for such dance forms and the fast movements combined with perfect timing will leave you mesmerized.

MAP OF CHHATTISGARH

TRIBAL AND FOLK DANCES OF CHHATTISGARH

Tribal Dances

Saila Dance

Panthi Dance

Karma Dance

Bison Horn Maria

Folk Dances

Sua Nacha

Raut Nacha

Rahas Dance

Pandwani

TRIBAL DANCES

LET'S START WITH TRIBAL DANCES

TRIBAL DANCES-CULTURE & HERITAGE

The tribal people preserve their rich culture modestly and religiously.

Chhattisgarh has been home to many tribals.

There are over 35 big and small colourful tribes spread over the region.

It is believed that the ancient tribals were living in Bastar for more than 10000 years.

The main tribal community of Chhattisgarh state includes Bastar – Gond, Bisonhorn Maria, Muria, Halba, Bhatra, Parja, Dhurva, Dantewara – Muria, Dorla, Halba, Korea – Kol, Savra, Rajgond, Kavar, Dhanwar, Bilaspur and Raipur – Parghi, Savra, Manji, Mainpur, Dhura, and Jashpur – Munda.

The state hosts many religious sects such as Satnami Panth, Kabirpanth, Ramnami Samaj, and others.

SAILA DANCE

- This Chhattisgarh dance form is performed by boys after the harvest season.
- This stick dance involves children who move in various styles while tapping their stick against the stick of the person next to them.
- Villagers give paddy to people who participate in the dance as a sign of gratitude.
- The pinnacle of this interesting gait structure is usually a snake dance.

KARMA DANCE

- Generally performed by tribal groups like Gonds and Baigas in Chhattisgarh.
- This dance form marks the end of the rainy season and the advent of spring.
- Both men and women participate in the dance following a lead singer.
- It is only after the offering of new to the deity on the second day that its consumption begins.
- Karma dance is to celebrate the arrival of a new crop.

PANTHI DANCE

- The Satnami community celebrates the anniversary of the birth of Guru Ghasidas in Maghi Purnima.
- The dance also combines a variety of steps and patterns and generally denotes the teachings and sayings of its holy master.
- The dancers wear colorful dresses and sing praises to the “guru”.
- A group of men builds a pyramid formation as the group leader sings.

BISON HORN MARIA

- This dance is performed during festivals as part of worship or related to agriculture and marriage.
- Earlier the men used to do the drumming as part Of hunting exercise.
- The heavy cylindrical drum is made of a hollowed tree-trunk three feet or more in length.
- The Bison Horn Maria dance is a synchronous rhythmic dance.

FOLK DANCES

NOW LET'S MOVE TO FOLK DANCES

FOLK DANCES-CULTURE & HERITAGE

Chhattisgarh is rich in its cultural heritage.

The State has a very unique and vibrant culture.

Their rhythmic folk music, dances and dramas are a treat to watch and also provide an insight into the culture of the State.

Most of the Chhattisgarh folk dance forms are performed for denoting the change of seasons, as part of rituals or are performed in reverence for the gods.

To make these performances even better, special costumes as well as accessories are designed for them

SUA NACHA

- Usually called a parrot dance.
- This dance is done on Goura-Gauri wedding in Diwali.
- Women of the devaar tribe perform this dance.
- The artists also sing and move, accompanied by loud applause.
- Firstly, the women perform this dance and while doing So, keep a clay parrot in the center.

RAUT NACHA

- The scenes show the fierce fight between King Khansa and the cowboys in that area.
- The cowboy Yadavs represent Lord Krishna as their almighty.
- As per the Hindu calendar, on the 11th day after the Deepawali known as 'dev udhniEkadashi', this dance take place.
- It is a strong belief that during the auspicious 'tithi' the god is awake.

RAHAS DANCE

- The Rahas dance is performed during festivals in Chhattisgarh.
- It is an important folk dance performed in the Dhamtari district of the state.
- Rural people represent the dance with great enthusiasm wearing traditional hats and costumes.
- The central theme of the dance is Rasa Lila of Krishna and his abode Radha.

ABOUT PANDWANI

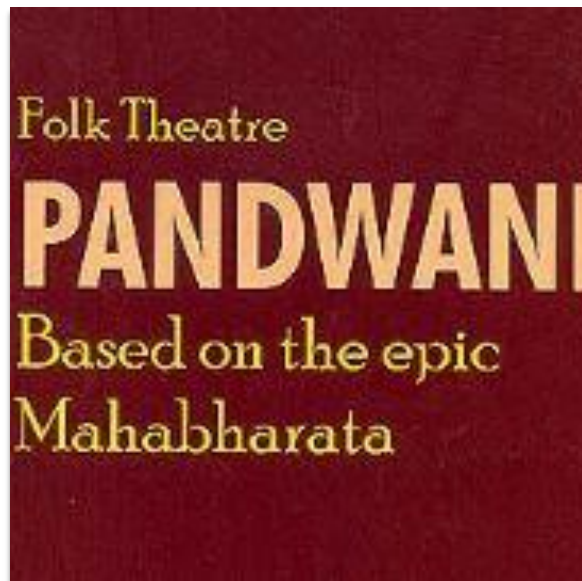

Actually, the Pandwani singer is a genre of telling the story of Mahabharata in Chhattisgarhi. In which the whole story is told with songs and verses.

Pandavani (Songs and Stories of the Pandavas) is a folk singing style involving narration of tales from the ancient Indian epic Mahabharata.

The singing also involves musical accompaniment. Bhima, the second of the Pandava is the hero of the story in this style.

This form of folk theatre is popular in the central Indian state of Chhattisgarh and in the neighbouring areas of Madhya Pradesh, Orissa and Andhra Pradesh.

TYPES OF PANDWANI

Vedamati

- Singing

Kapalik

- Singing and Dancing

SOME PROMINENT PANDWANI SINGERS

TODAY WE ARE GOING TO DISCUSS ABOUT MRS TEEJAN BAI AND MRS.
USHA BARLE.

MRS. TEEJAN BAI RECEIVING PADMAVIBHUSAN FROM HON. PRESIDENT OF INDIA

MRS. TEEJAN BAI

■ Beginning of Pandwani singing

- She used to watch her maternal grandfather Brajlal sing stories from Mahabharata and gradually she started remembering these stories.
- At the age of 13, she made her first stage performance.
- In those times, female Pandwani singers could only sit and sing what is called the Vedmati style.
- Earlier, men used to stand up and sing in Kapalik style.
- Teejanbai was the first woman who performed Pandwani in the Kapalik style.
- She was expelled from the community by the 'Pardhi' tribe for being a woman, for singing Pandwani.

AWARDS RECEIVED BY MRSTEEJAN BAI

She is the first female artist of folk song-drama Pandwani in Chhattisgarh state of India.

In 1980, as a cultural ambassador, she travelled to England, France, Switzerland, Germany, Turkey, Malta, Cyprus, Romania and Mauritius and performed there.

She was awarded the Padma Shree by the Government of India in the year 1988 and the Padma Bhushan in the field of art in the year 2003.

She has also been awarded Sangeet Natak Akademi Award in 1995 and the Nritya Shiromani Award in 2007.

In 2019, she was awarded the Padma Vibhushan by Hon. President Shri Ram Nath Kovind.

Mrs Usha Barle Receiving Padma Shree From Hon. President Of India

ABOUT USHA BARLE

- From the age of 7, she came into the field of this art. Since then she is singing Pandwani.
- She has received training in Pandwani from renowned Pandwani singer and Padma Vibhushan Teejanbai.
- She has performed Pandwani in various states of India including cities like London and New York.

STRUGGLES

- Usha Barle says that she also went through a period of financial constraints.
- When she remember that time, her eyes become moist.
- She used to sell bananas, oranges and other fruits in a sector-1 settlement to run the household.
- They were very struggling days. Even after this, she did not give up.
- Her husband studied ITI and then got a job at BSP. After this her financial conditions improved.
- The Government of India has selected her for the Padma Shri award for her good work in the field of Pandwani.

CAREER

- Usha Barle says that from the age of 7, she started getting interested in Pandwani singing. For this, his guru first became his uncle.
- Usha Barle told that her uncle encouraged her and her uncle had said that one day you will brighten the name of your village as well as your state and country, today her dream has been fulfilled.
- She says that the state government should open a school for the education of Pandwani, in which the interested children of Pandwani can be educated.
- So far, Usha has performed her Pandwani genre in more than 45 countries along with India.

AWARDS

She was conferred with the Padma Shree the third highest civilian honour.

Along with this, she has been honored with Dau Mahasingh Chandrakar Award by Bhilai steel plant management.

For Pandwani she has been awarded Guru Ghasidas Samajik Chetna Puraskar by the Government of Chhattisgarh.

She has also been awarded gold medals six times in Girodhpuri Tapobhoomi.

FOODS OF CHHATTISGARH

BEING A STATE WHICH PRODUCES STAPLE FOOD IN ABUNDANCE, A GREAT PART OF THE FOOD CULTURE OF CHHATTISGARH CONSISTS OF THE STAPLE CROPS SUCH AS RICE, BAJRA, JAWAR.

MUTHIA

- Muthia are dumplings cooked in the traditional style of the Chhattisgarh state.
- Muthia is prepared with the rice batter which is seasoned with various spices.
- The dish is not fried but is steamed and hence it retains the original flavor of its ingredients.
- This dish is also famous among the rural people of the state.

AAMAT

- Aamat is considered as the Sambhar of Bastar region of the state.
- This delectable delicacy of the state is prepared with mixed vegetables which is cooked along with the ginger garlic paste and various spices to enhance the flavor of the dish.
- Traditionally the dish is prepared in the bamboo shoots.

CHILA

- Chila is flat chapati like dish which is prepared with the rice batter mixed with the Urad Daal.
- The dish is very easy to cook and is very delicious in the taste.
- Chila is an important part of the breakfast meal of the people of Chhattisgarh.
- To grab the best taste of Chila, complement it with the green chutney.

BHAJIA

- Bhajia is a famous street food of Chhattisgarh which is very popular among the local people of the state.
- Bhajia is prepared with the gram flour.
- Various type of Bhajis such as Mirchi Bhaji- prepared with chili, onion Bhaji prepared with onion, and Aloo Bhajia prepared with potato are some of the famous variants of the dish.
- The perfect aroma and the right amount spices add the delectable street food taste to this dish.

SABUDANA KI KICHDI

- Sabudana Ki Kichdi is a dish prepared with the soaked Sabudana balls.
- To add the flavor to the dish various vegetables and spices are added that provides a delicious taste.
- Sabudana ki Kichdi is fondly eaten during the fast, but it accounts for an important dish for the people of Chhattisgarh.

TILGUR OR TILKELADOO

- The roasted sesame seeds are mixed with the dark jaggery and peanuts.
- The mixed is well mixed and is then made into Ladoos to grab the famous dish of the state.
- Tilgur are must- served during the various Occasions and festivals of the state.
- Makar Sankranti is the main festival where the people prepare Tilgur.

ART AND CRAFTS

LET'S TAKE A LOOK AT THE ART AND CRAFTS OF CHHATTISGARH

TRIBAL ART

THE TRIBAL ART OF CHHATTISGARH INCLUDES WALL PAINTING AND PITHORA ART

CRAFTS OF CHHATTISGARH

THE CRAFTS INCLUDE METAL CARVING , WOOD CARVING, BEAD CARVING , WALL ART

ART AND CRAFTS

Chhattisgarh is renowned for rich metal crafts and other handicrafts made of bamboo and wood.

Folk painting and folk jewelry of Chhattisgarh are very popular.

The painting depicts the living style of the tribal people of which Folk Art Painting and Pithora paintings are very popular.

Tribal men and women of Chhattisgarh wear traditional folk ornaments made out of beads.

Overall, Bamboo work, Woodcarving, Folk Art Paintings, and folk Jewelry are the primary forms of handicrafts in Chhattisgarh.

FREEDOM FIGHTERS OF CHHATTISGARH

THE INTRUSION OF THE BRITISH WAS RESISTED STRONGLY IN BASTAR BY THE TRIBALS AND OTHERS PART OF CHHATTISGARH AND IT CONTINUED TILL 1947.

VEER NARAYAN SINGH

- Veer Narayan Singh (1795–1857) was a landlord from Sonakhan, Chhattisgarh.
- He spearheaded the 1857 war of Indian independence in Chhattisgarh.
- He is also known and considered as "The 1st Chhattisgarhi freedom fighter".
- His ancestor were from Gond tribal group and were residing in Bhangad.
- Later on, they changed their affiliation from Gond tribe and moved to Sonakhan in Raipur district.
- He was hanged at Jaistambh Chowk of Raipur, Chhattisgarh.

PT. SUNDARLALSHARMA

- Pandit Sundarlal Sharma (21 December 1881 — 28 December 1940) was a key figure in the independence movement from Chhattisgarh.
- He was largely responsible for ushering in political and social consciousness to Chhattisgarh.
- In 1920, he started the canal satyagraha, also known as the Nahar satyagraha, at a village called Kandel in Dhamtari Tehsil.
- Chhattisgarh has a university in the name of Pandit Sundarlal Sharma.

THAKUR PYARELAL SINGH

- Thakur Pyarelal Singh (21 December 1891 -20 October 1954), was an Indianfreedom fighter against British rule and the founder of labour movements in Chhattisgarh.
- He led three workers' movements in RajnandgaonRiyast in 1919-1920, 1924 and 1937.
- Many Indian national schools were established during this period under Thakur Pyarelal's supervision, including the Madhyamik School in Rajnandgaon.
- He was also conferred with the honorary title of "Tyagmurti", which means "epitome of sacrifice“.

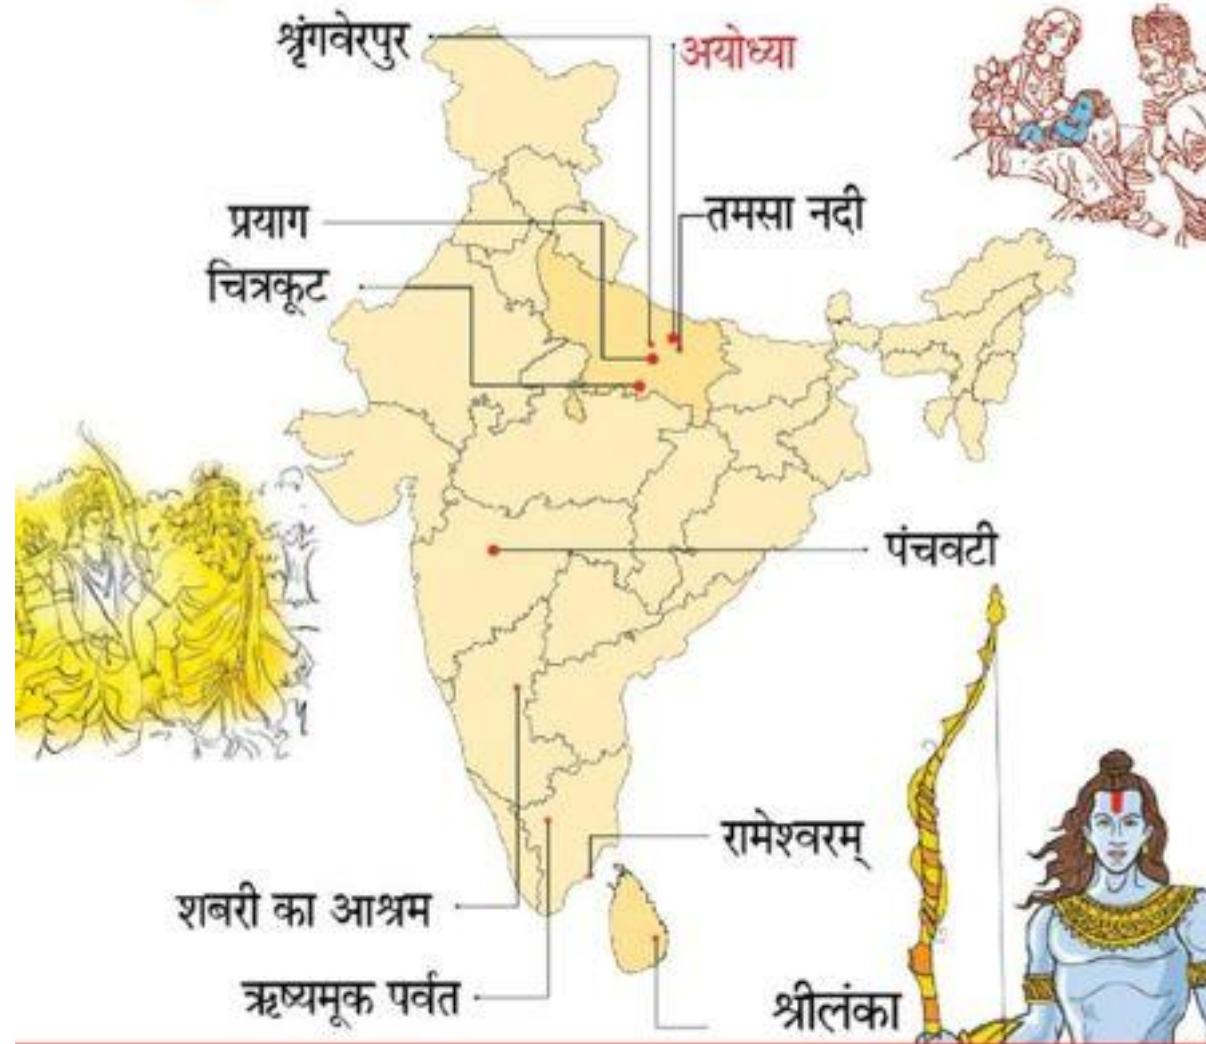

ठाकुर प्यारेलाल सिंह

RAM VAN GAMAN TOURISM CIRCUIT

IT IS TO UNDERPIN THE LEGACY OF LORD RAM THAT THE CHHATTISGARH GOVERNMENT HAS COME UP WITH THE IDEA OF DEVELOPING THE RAM VAN GAMAN TOURISM CIRCUIT.

॥ राम वनगमन पथ ॥

The map illustrates the 'Shri Ram Van Gaman Marg' (Shri Ram Van Travel Route) across Odisha. The route is marked in green, starting from Puri and passing through various districts. Key locations along the route include Puri, Balasore, Cuttack, Bhubaneswar, and Khurda. The map also shows major rivers like the Mahanadi, Brahmani, and Baitarani. Neighboring states are labeled: Madhya Pradesh to the north, Uttar Pradesh to the northeast, and Bihar to the east. The Bay of Bengal is to the southeast. The title 'श्रीराम वन गमन मार्ग' (Shri Ram Van Gaman Marg) is prominently displayed in red at the top left.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE OF THE RAM VAN GAMAN PATH

The Ram Van Gaman Tourism Circuit emphasizes this universal message of Ramayana by marking the path that Lord Ram had traveled in the course of his wanderings during his exile when he was accompanied by his brother Lakshman and wife Sita.

The path will identify and mark the footsteps of Lord Ram as he led the arduous life of an ascetic, away from the fame and royalty of his Ayodhya palace.

The Ram Van Gaman Path will, therefore, pay a worthy tribute to the important era in Treta Yug when Lord Ram set a glorious example of righteousness by following his father King Dashrath's command.

THANK YOU FOR LISTENING TO ME