14 principles of Management by Henry Fayol -

Division of Work - Specialize jobs to increase employee efficiency & productivity

Responsibility & Authority - The right to give orders must be balanced with responsibilities for the outcomes.

3.  Discipline - A culture of mutual respect and obedience to mutual rules is essential.

4.  Unity of Command - An employee should receive orders from only one supervisor to avoid conflict.

5.  Unity of direction - All teams with the same objective should work under one manager & one plan.

6.  Subordination of individual interests - The interests of organizations as whole take precedence over individual interests.

7.  Remuneration - Employers must pay fair and provide satisfaction for both employees and employers.

8.  Centralization - Refers to the degree to which decision-making is concentrated at the top management level.

9.  Scalar Chain - The line of authority from top management to the lowest ranks should be clear.

10. Order - is place for everything & everyone, ensuring resources and staff are in right place.

11. Equity - Managers should treat employees with a combination of kindness and justice.

12. Stability of Tenure of Personnel - High employee turnover is inefficient, management should strive to retain staff.

13. Initiative - Employees should be encouraged to originate and carry out plans.

14. Esprit de Corps - Promoting team spirit will build harmony and unity within the organization.
